

FRIENDS OF THE ALABAMA ARCHIVES

2006-2007 STUDENT FELLOWSHIPS

The Friends of the Alabama Archives is sponsoring two $800 Student Fellowships for 2006-2007. The fellowships are available to senior-level or graduate students in an Alabama college or university or to Alabama residents in study at a school outside the state. They are intended to help offset expenses incurred while conducting research using the collections of the Alabama Department of Archives and History or while participating in a supervised internship at the Archives. A committee of the Friends Board of Directors will review the applications and make awards based on its evaluation of project significance and work plan feasibility. Funds must be used by September 2007.

Applications should include the following:

- Name
- Postal address
- Phone number
- E-mail address
- School
- Department
- Previous degree if graduate student
- Statement of project
- Plan of work
- Letter of reference from major professor or department head (may be sent separately)

Each applicant is welcome to submit an additional letter of reference, a résumé, a brief writing sample, or similar materials.

Mail applications and letters of reference by June 30, 2006 to:
